

T:AIM is a pop up experience of Stories Of Migrant Women

We are building up an online exhibition open to everyone who recognizes him/herself into the women's universe in all its shades in a context of migration/expatriation. The artwork must be coherent with the proposed theme. There is no entry fee and selected artists will be represented at the "Estate Allo Spasimo" exhibition in Palermo, Italy on the 30/08 - 01/9/19.

This is an international competition and artists from any country are welcome to participate.

Thank you and good luck!

Submission Criteria:

- Please submit up to 10 images, saved as JPEG
- No bigger than 2MB each; measurements are not specific
- Name the files as follows: firstname-surname-number
- A short biography with links to website, email & social media
- The bio doesn't need to be a list of publications you've been in -- we want to know about you.
- A textual description of the concept, story or process behind the work (max300word).
- By submitting, you agree that we can use your work to promote the press through our social media campaigns with credit attributed to you.

Submit to storiesofmigrantwomen@gmail.com

Deadline: midnight 31 July 2019